By applying for Membership in Charleroi Archery Club, Inc., the prospective member agrees to attend scheduled monthly meetings in accordance with Article 7; Section 4 of the Club Constitution. The prospective member also agrees to participate in scheduled work days in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Club By-Laws Article 16. (Active, Life, Trial and Head of Household Members Only. Junior Members not required to participate in work days)

A prospective member opting to join on a 4-month trial membership will serve a period of four months in which he/she can participate in all club activities but will not be able to vote on club issues at meetings. During the Trial Membership period, the prospective member will be expected to attend monthly meetings and any work days that may be scheduled. He/She will be required to pay the half of the Initiation Fee and yearly membership dues ($35.00). After the completion of the 4-month trial period, if the prospective member decides that he/she does not wish to continue membership in the club, he/she may resign their membership. If the prospective member decides to continue affiliation with Charleroi Archery Club, he/she will be required to pay the remainder of the Initiation Fee and yearly club dues ($35.00). At this time, the member will be given full club privileges including the right to vote on club issues.
